

CONFIDENCE INTERVAL ANALYSIS (CIA)

NOTICE
TO USERS

In version 1.0 of this computer program an error has been discovered in the calculation of Spearman's rank correlation coefficient and its confidence interval. It is hoped that no major misinterpretation of data has resulted. The problem has been corrected in version 1.1 of the program which is now available. Any purchaser of version 1.0 who returns their disk to us at the address below will have it replaced by version 1.1, free of charge.
