In The Fight for Public Health, Simon Chapman and Deborah Lupton show how lobbying through media advocacy can be a powerful tool in mobilising public support and getting public health legislation passed. Illustrated with photographs and crammed with compelling examples from around the world, this lively and entertaining guide:

- Describes what advocacy is
- Shows how public opinion has influenced public health policy in the past
- Includes an A-Z of strategies for gaining media attention.

"This splendid book moves the art of media advocacy a giant step forward. Chapman and Lupton's counsel leapfrogs continents; it will be as welcome and applicable in London and Washington as in Sydney."
