

How do you...

Persuade a government to ban tobacco advertising?

Campaign against dumping of toxic waste?

Energise the fight against AIDS?

In The Fight for Public Health, Simon Chapman and Deborah Lupton show how lobbying through media advocacy can be a powerful tool in mobilising public support and getting public health legislation passed. Illustrated with photographs and crammed with compelling examples from around the world, this lively and entertaining guide:

- Describes what advocacy is
- Shows how public opinion has influenced public health policy in the past
- Includes an A-Z of strategies for gaining media attention.

"This splendid book moves the art of media advocacy a giant step forward.

Chapman and Lupton's counsel leapfrogs continents; it will be as welcome and applicable in London and Washington as in Sydney."
