

Declaration of Interests Statement

BMJ's policy on declaration of interests can be found at <http://static.www.bmj.com/sites/default/files/attachments/resources/2016/03/16-current-bmj-education-coi-form.pdf>.

Name: Malcolm Sim

Position: Editor-in-Chief, Occupational & Environmental Medicine

I have read and understood the BMJ policy on declaration of interests and declare the following interests:

Malcolm Sim is employed fulltime as a Professor of Occupational and Environmental Health by Monash University in Melbourne, Australia. He currently holds research grants, which are paid to Monash University and not to Professor Sim personally, from the following funding bodies: The Australian National Health and Medical Research Council, the Australian Research Council, Safe Work Australia, the Queensland Department of Natural Resources and Mines, the Civil Aviation Safety Authority, the Australian Institute of Petroleum, Alcoa of Australia, the Asbestos Safety Eradication Agency, the Victorian Department of Health and Human Services, South Australia Health, WorkSafe Victoria and The Australian Department of Veterans' Affairs. He has had travel reimbursed to speak at conferences organised by numerous professional and scientific organizations, but he has not received speaking fees. Prof Sim is an elected Board Member of the International Commission on Occupational Health (ICOH) and is a member of the Management Group of ICOH's Scientific Committee on Epidemiology in Occupational Health (EPICOH), which are unpaid roles. He is a Presiding Member of the Medical Panels in Victoria, which is a paid position. He recently completed a nine year term as a member of the Human Research Ethics Committee of the Australian Institute of Health and Welfare, for which he received a nominal sitting fee. He is a member of the Editorial Boards of the Cochrane Work Review Group and the Safety and Health at Work journal, both of which are unpaid positions.
